

Read 'Em and Reap!

Evangelical Book Reviews
Hebrews 5:14

Doctrine Twisting

With the great push toward Ecumenicalism, the Church is being bombarded with destructive doctrine. As much as we hate to admit it, it's not a new thing. There have always been groups outside the orthodox purview of Christianity vying for attention and trying to introduce their heresies into the Body of Christ. Though there are many differences of opinion on various aspects of doctrine among orthodox Christians, believers tend to be united around the core beliefs of Christianity. Following are a few of the core beliefs which unite us:

- There is one God eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit
- The Bible is the written Word of God, making it fully authoritative and sufficient for faith and practice
- Jesus Christ is the Son of God, born of a virgin, fully

man and fully God.

- Jesus' death was a sacrificial atonement for the sins of His people
- Justification is by grace through faith alone
- The Resurrection of Jesus Christ
- The Return of Jesus Christ in bodily form.
- The glorification of the saints and eternal judgment of the wicked

This book examines these and other doctrines and sets forth the Biblical position of each. Then it compares and contrasts the teachings of the following non-orthodox groups:

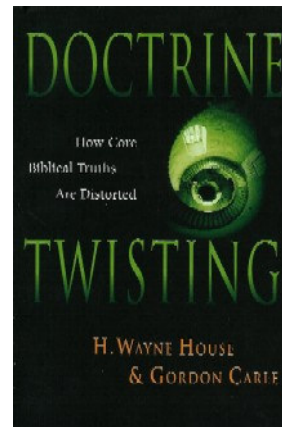

Christian Science Church Universal and Triumphant A Course in Miracles Christadelphians Foundation for Human Understanding Freemasonry Jehovah's Witnesses Mind Science groups Mormons	New Age movement Rosicrucians Seventh-day Adventist United Pentecostal church Unity School Uratia Foundation The Way International Word Faith movement
--	---

This is more of a reference book than a reader, but a valuable resource, nonetheless. Other resources of this type include Walter Martin's "Kingdom of the Cults", Josh McDowell's "Handbook of Today's Religions" and James Sire's "Scripture Twisting". Read 'em & Reap!

For more information and book reviews,
visit www.readnreap.net

Read 'Em and Reap!

Evangelical Book Reviews
Hebrews 5:14

Doctrine Twisting

With the great push toward Ecumenicalism, the Church is being bombarded with destructive doctrine. As much as we hate to admit it, it's not a new thing. There have always been groups outside the orthodox purview of Christianity vying for attention and trying to introduce their heresies into the Body of Christ. Though there are many differences of opinion on various aspects of doctrine among orthodox Christians, believers tend to be united around the core beliefs of Christianity. Following are a few of the core beliefs which unite us:

- There is one God eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit
- The Bible is the written Word of God, making it fully authoritative and sufficient for faith and practice
- Jesus Christ is the Son of God, born of a virgin, fully

man and fully God.

- Jesus' death was a sacrificial atonement for the sins of His people
- Justification is by grace through faith alone
- The Resurrection of Jesus Christ
- The Return of Jesus Christ in bodily form.
- The glorification of the saints and eternal judgment of the wicked

This book examines these and other doctrines and sets forth the Biblical position of each. Then it compares and contrasts the teachings of the following non-orthodox groups:

Christian Science Church Universal and Triumphant A Course in Miracles Christadelphians Foundation for Human Understanding Freemasonry Jehovah's Witnesses Mind Science groups Mormons	New Age movement Rosicrucians Seventh-day Adventist United Pentecostal church Unity School Uratia Foundation The Way International Word Faith movement
--	---

This is more of a reference book than a reader, but a valuable resource, nonetheless. Other resources of this type include Walter Martin's "Kingdom of the Cults", Josh McDowell's "Handbook of Today's Religions" and James Sire's "Scripture Twisting". Read 'em & Reap!

For more information and book reviews,
visit www.readnreap.net